Appointment of Dr. Gena S. Crews as Principal at South Lexington School

The Lexington City Schools Board of Education has enthusiastically approved the appointment of Dr. Gena Crews as the new principal of South Lexington School. With an accomplished 23-year career in education, Crews brings a wealth of experience to this role. Holding a Doctorate degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, her expertise extends across eight years as an assistant principal and an additional 14 years as an elementary teacher and teacher leader in both Guilford County Schools and Alamance-Burlington Schools. Crews' educational journey began in 2001 as a teacher and has evolved through a series of impactful roles, culminating in this principal position.

Dr. Hardy, Superintendent of Lexington City Schools, expresses her excitement about Crews' appointment, stating, "I am genuinely thrilled about the appointment of Dr. Crews as the new principal at South Lexington School. Her extensive experience in early education and unwavering dedication to educating all students truly stands out." The exact start date for Dr. Crews will be announced at a later time."
