TEACHER JOB DESCRIPTION
Position: Extended Impact Teacher

Summary
The Direct-Reach Teacher plans and delivers in-person instruction for multiple classes and/or larger classes in a school where students rotate between face-to-face learning with the teacher and learning supervised by a paraprofessional known as a reach associate. The teacher is responsible for planning, preparing, and delivering instruction, and monitoring student progress to determine instructional needs. (S)he is also responsible for monitoring the effectiveness of instruction supervised by the reach associate(s) and making or recommending changes. The teacher collaborates with others working with the same students or subjects, such as other teachers, tutors, and reach associates, to review student progress and change instruction to ensure high-progress, enriched learning for every student. The teacher may work on a team led by a multi-classroom leader.

Responsibilities
Planning and Preparation
- Set high expectations of achievement that are ambitious and measurable for students
- Plan backward to align all lessons, activities, and assessments in designated subject(s)
- Design in-person instruction that is enriched (developing higher-order thinking skills) and personalized (reflecting learning levels and interests of individual students)
- Design personalized assignments for students while under reach associate supervision
- Design assessments that accurately assess student growth
- Determine how students spend all instructional time

Classroom Environment
- Hold students accountable for high expectations of behavior and engagement
- Create physical classroom environments conducive to collaborative and individual learning

- Identify and address individual students’ development of organizational and time-management skills
- Invest students in learning with several influence methods
- Incorporate questioning and discussion in student learning
- Incorporate small-group and individual instruction to personalize and tailor instruction to individual needs
- Monitor and analyze student assessment data to inform personalized, enriched instruction
- Provide reach associate with student groupings, instructional assignments, and assessment rubrics
- Communicate with students and keep them informed of their progress

Professional Responsibilities
- Solicit and eagerly receive feedback from supervisor and team members to improve professional skills
- Maintain regular communication with families, and work collaboratively with them to design learning at home and school, and to encourage a home life conducive to learning
- Collaborate with reach associate, other teachers, and staff responsible for the same students
- Participate in professional development at school
